Before one of the most enthusiastic crowds of basketball fans and fanettes that ever witnessed a basketball game in Parish hall. Taftville, the undefeated Taftville Kacey quintet defeated the Danlelson five by the score of 44 to 17 and thereby winning the champlomship of sastern Connecticut.

The Danlelson five played a close defensive game and held the Kaceys to a close score during the first ten minutes but the Kaceys team work and accurate shooting enabled them to forge alead to a safe margin which they increased to the final whistic. Mills Taftville's lanky center, was injured and had to retire during the first half but not until he had dropped in four double-deckers. T. Coleman replaced him and played a close guarding game, holding his man scoreliest. Belair fromped in seven counters and Jack Murhy, plitted against Reddy, the fashy Danlelson forward, scored a 31 to 1 victory out the girls' team of the J. E. Martin company of Norwich. Much credit can be given the J. B. Schaefer, however, weakened in the final frames and Hoppe came back with 134 in his sixth frame and passed Schaefer in the next inning with a run of 167.

At the start of tonight's play Schae-fer was the Hoppe of last night, He played with precision that was perfect, while Hoppe was very unsteady and the breaks were all against him. As the game progressed the luck shifted and the champion at one time seemed certain of defeat.

Back of Hoppe's corner tonight sat his five year old daughter Alice and as the night's play closed, she rushed up to her father and whispered to

"You'll win sure tomorrow, papa." "Perhaps she's right," commented Hoppe. " I hope so and I think so, but it's evident now that the breaks will decide this match."
Schaefer left the balls in good position for his first shot temorrow
